

ARE YOU STARTING SECONDARY RELIGIOUS EDUCATION TEACHER TRAINING IN SEPTEMBER 2023?

Are you struggling to fund your training?

If you are undertaking teacher training in secondary religious education from September 2023 you may be able to apply for some cost-of-living support through one of the following charitable trusts. Most of these Trusts award small grants of between £500 and £1000 depending on need. Some Trusts have conditions for awards such as living in a certain area of the country.

All Saints Educational Trust

Information:

<https://www.aset.org.uk/howtoapply.html>

Application Form:

<https://www.aset.org.uk/canyouapply.php>

Uk Wide

Culham St Gabriel's Trust

Information:

<https://www.cstg.org.uk/funding/individual/>

Application Form: Please email enquiries@cstg.org.uk

UK wide

Hockerill Educational Foundation

Information:

<https://www.hockerillfoundation.org.uk/Grants.aspx>

Application Form:

<https://www.hockerillfoundation.org.uk/Links.aspx>

UK wide

Keswick Hall Trust

Information:

<https://www.keswickhalltrust.org.uk/grants/>

Application Form:

<https://www.keswickhalltrust.org.uk/grants/>

Uk Wide

Sarum St Michael Trust

Information:

<https://www.sarumstmichael.org/page10.html>

Application Form:

<https://www.sarumstmichael.org/page10.html>

Geographical Limitations apply